

The Power of a Unified Church and a Faith-filled Christian

Acts 6:5-15

December 16, 2006

I. The Power and Fruit of a Unified Church

The Lord uses His W_____ preached by the elders and received and rejoiced in by His people to bring sweet u_____ in the Lord. (Act.6:1-5; Gal.1:10; 2Ti.3:16-4:4)

When you are given over to the Lord, then you will be given over to His p_____. When our hearts are right with the Lord and His people, the ways of the Lord w_____ be pleasing to us. (Act.6:5)

Through His Word and Spirit God directs our hearts and thinking as a body to fulfill His will in our v_____. (Act.6:5; 1:26)

We must ever visibly and heartily acknowledge our dependence upon the Lord by p_____ together. (Act.6:6; Phi.4:6)

The elders now acknowledge and publicly credential these chosen to be deacons by the l_____ on of hands. (Act.6:6; 1Ti.5:22)

When the church is unified in God's will, God's Word shines through them powerfully out into the w_____. (Act.6:7; Mat.5:14-16; Joh.13:34-35)

People will not be saved without h_____ the Gospel message. (Act.6:7; Rom.10:13-15; 2Co.9:6)

We must n_____ forget that our calling is to take the Gospel to the world. (Mar.16:15; Joh.4:31-38)

II. The Power and Fruit of a Faith-filled Christian

To be full of true faith is to be full of p_____. (Act.1:8; 6:3)

Our relationship with the Lord is a relationship of f_____. (Act.6:8; Rom.1:17; Heb.11:1,6)

When we are being used of the Lord o_____ will arise eventually. (Act.6:9; 2Ti.3:12)

Sometimes our peacefulness is not a blessing from the Lord. Often it is because we are failing to s_____ the realms of satan's darkness with the Gospel light.

Faith searches the W_____, hides It in its heart and has It as a frontlet between the eyes. Thus It is always ready at hand as a s_____ to be wielded for the glory of God and His kingdom. (Act.6:10; Psa.119:11; Deu.6:6-8; Eph.6:17)

No matter what the world does it is the Christian's responsibility to o_____ the law and do g_____ to our fellowman. (Act.6:9-14; 1Pe.2:12-17)

A faith-filled Christian will reflect the beauty and glory of C_____. (Act.6:15; 2Co.3:18)

Christian, are you in unity with your brethren?

Are you a faith-filled Christian?