

Conversion

Acts 3:19-26

October 15, 2006

We must be careful in believing one truth of the Bible to not discount another just because we can't see how they fit together. We must believe a _____ the truth. (Deu.29:29; Act.20:27)

The Apostle Peter in this passage is sincerely and passionately giving arguments for and a _____ to his countrymen for their conversion. (and for y____, also! 2Co.5:20)

I. The Payment Made for our Conversion

Christ has finished the work of redemption. He has paid a _____ of our debt so that we can now convert (turn) unto God with acceptance through the Lord Jesus Christ. (Act.3:18; Joh.19:30; Isa.52:10-12; Joh.14:6)

II. The Command to Repent & Be Converted

For you to repent is for you to thoroughly change your mind about your s____ and your s____. (Act.3:19)

To be converted is for you to turn unto the Lord with your w_____ heart. (Act.3:19)

III. The Evidence of Conversion

When there is a genuine conversion there will be evidence of it that o_____ will notice. (Act.3:22-23)

When one has been converted he will h_____ and o_____ the Lord Jesus. (Act.3:22-23; Eph.4:20; Mat.28:20; Act.2:42; 1Jo.2:3-6)

IV. The Necessity of this Conversion for You

You need to be converted in order that a _____ of your sins may be blotted out. (Act.3:19; 13:38-39)

You need to be converted in order to e_____ the times of refreshing. (Act.3:20; Isa.9:6; Mat.11:28-30). Have you experienced this refreshing?

To be a Christian is to have the best life n____. (Joh.10:10; Psa.23:1)

You need to be converted in order to have a part in the restitution of all things -- the new h_____ & e_____. (Act.3:20-21; 2Pe.3:13-15)

You need to be converted so you won't be d_____. (Act.3:23; Pro.14:12; Gal.6:7)

You need to be converted so you won't be destroyed with an e_____ destruction. (2Th.1:7-9)

V. A Tender & Earnest Appeal for Your Conversion

A genuine and earnest appeal is now being made for y_____ to repent toward God and be converted to Jesus Christ as y_____ Lord and Savior. (Act.3:25-26)

Don't ignore the mercy of God. This is a sincere message for you. "Unto you ... (a____) God, having raised up His Son Jesus, sent Him to bless you, in turning away ... you from ... (your) iniquities." (Act.3:25; Joh.3:17)

Are you converted?