

Why Preach Through the Book of Acts?

Acts 1-28

May 7, 2006

1. Acts is one of the _____ books of the Bible.

* The Apostle Paul preached a _____ the counsel of God. (Act.20:27)

* Every word of the Bible is G____-breathed, and is profitable for d_____, reproof, correction, and instruction in righteousness. (2Ti.3:16; 2Pe.1:19-21)

* All that we need for faith and practice is found in the B_____. (2Ti.3:17)

2. The book of Acts testifies of and glorifies the Lord J_____. (Joh.5:39; 2Ti.3:15; Act.1:1)

3. The book of Acts points us to repentance toward G____ and f_____ toward the Lord Jesus Christ. (Act.1:1; 4:11; 16:30-32; 20:20-21)

4. The book of Acts gives us a proper view of the transition from the Old Covenant to the N Covenant where the Law is now written on our h_____. (Mat.26:28; Heb.8:

* The book of Acts gives us a proper view of the transition from a socio-ethnic people to a spiritually gathered, Christ-centered people in the New Testament c_____. (Mat.16:18; 18:17-20; 28:18-20; Act.1-28)

5. A proper study of the book of Acts helps us to see that in this transition there was a merciful, p_____ period for the Jews. (Luk.13:3-5; 19:41-44; 21:20-22; Act.2:40)

In this period God gave many special s_____ gifts that were to point the Jews again to Jesus Christ as the only Savior, and to be the cause of their greater condemnation and destruction upon their rejection. (Act.2:12-36; Joel)

6. The book of Acts gives us a pattern for and encouragement in carrying out the Great Commission which our Lord has given us. (Mat.28:18-20; Act.1:8; 13:1-4; 14:26-28)

7. In the book of Acts we have great encouragement by the p_____ of them who are of like passions as we. Who are some of these faithful saints? Have you been faithful?

The Lord is ready to forgive in Christ! Look to and trust in Him! (Act.13:38-39)